MACKENZIE L. WATTS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS SOCCER, CHOIR AND SWIMMING/DIVING

APPLICATION DEADLINE March 27, 2020

Mackenzie L. Watts
May 22, 1990 ~ November 21, 2005

Mackenzie was born in Owosso, Michigan, the daughter of George and Laurie Watts.

Mackenzie made the people and world around her better. She was a friend to all who knew her and the impact of her life extended far beyond those. Whether she was in the classroom, at church, in the pool, or singing in the choir, Mackenzie approached life with such heart that an entire room would smile at her presence.

A natural leader, Mackenzie was constantly supportive of her peers in any situation. She could be counted on for sound advice, words of encouragement, or an open ear. She was sincere, welcoming, and lived every day with an enthusiasm only matched by her trademarked smile.

Mackenzie was also a hard worker, determined to give it her all until her goals were accomplished. She faced every new challenge, tackled every new problem, and climbed over any barrier with joyful optimism and full commitment.

Mackenzie was a true role model and set an example for others to strive for. Coaching young children, mentoring teammates, modeling dedication, piety, compassion and determination, Mackenzie, in her fifteen years on earth, demonstrated a life we should all try to emulate.
