YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL
W.K. KELLOGG FUND

GRANT APPLICATION

Due Friday, February 18, 2022 @ 4:00 pm

This fund was established by a community effort and a generous match from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation to encourage youth philanthropy. All funding decisions for this grant program are made by the members of the Youth Advisory Council, which is comprised of middle school and high school students from around the county.

The purpose of this fund is to support projects and programs primarily benefiting youth in the Shiawassee County area.

Grants are awarded to qualifying organizations including non-profits that are tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, schools, municipalities, and other governmental entities that serve a charitable purpose.

REQUIRED DISCLOSURES:

The Shiawassee Community Foundation Board of Directors reserves the right to extend any and all grant deadlines at their discretion. They also reserve the right to not award any and all grants in any given year.

Completing and submitting a grant application does not guarantee an award.

All grants will be made on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis determined by the criteria of each respective fund.

Grant amounts vary each year depending on available funding.

All grant application information submitted to SCF is handled in a strictly confidential manner.

Grant Selection Committee members are required to sign a Confidentiality Statement indicating that they will keep all application information confidential.

If funded, you will be required to submit a Final Grant Report to SCF detailing how the grant money was spent (documented with receipts) and how successfully the project achieved its proposed outcomes.

Applications may be disqualified if the applicant has an outstanding final grant report from a previous grant. Please contact our office if this is the case.
