Message from the President:

Greetings from the Shiawassee Community Foundation (SCF)!

2022 has been a very productive year for us. On behalf of the Board of Directors, I want to thank you for supporting SCF and our community. Throughout our annual report, you will notice that we are discussing how leaving a legacy can impact the entire community in many positive ways. Let me share with you a personal story that illustrates how easy it is to build a legacy.

For my whole life, my parents always expressed the value of giving back to our community. Both were involved in many fundraisers, projects, and initiatives to help enhance the quality of life for the people of the Shiawassee County area. As a child, I accompanied them and helped them in the projects they were working on. When I was in high school, I was strongly encouraged by my parents to volunteer in the community and join the Youth Advisory Council (YAC). As I went to my first meetings as a YAC member, I learned many things about our community and that I loved volunteering and giving back. As a YAC student, I had my first experience with philanthropy. It was so rewarding to know I was making a difference!

In 2008, shortly after my mother passed away, I was approached by the Shiawassee Community Foundation and was asked to serve as a Board Member. I eagerly accepted the Board appointment because I thought it was a way that I could further develop my philanthropy skills and give back to the community that was so supportive of our family during my mother's protracted illness. As a Board Member on SCF, I began to become more involved with the organization and joined many committees. On the 10th anniversary of my mother's passing, in 2018, my father and I discussed how we wanted to commemorate my mother's life. We thought that starting an endowment at SCF would be a perfect way to honor her life and preserve her legacy because she was always interested in helping those in our community. We crafted our family endowment fund so that it provides both scholarships and grant opportunities. In addition, a small portion of the funds available are given back to the SCF Community Cares Fund (unrestricted fund) so the SCF can continue its important work. Eventually, I became interested in serving in the leadership of SCF and in 2021, I assumed the role as President & Chair of the Shiawassee Community Foundation.

I think this story of my work with the Shiawassee Community Foundation & the Youth Advisory Council speaks for itself on how easy it is to start a legacy! It all started with the example set forth by my parents. They nurtured a sense of community service in me, and I have responded to the best of my ability. Each one of us can influence others around us! We are so blessed to live in a community with many folks who are eager to give back and create legacies. It is a privilege to serve as the Chair of SCF because we have such a wonderful and dynamic Board, Executive Director, and staff! I hope to work with each one of you to continue our work of enhancing the quality of life for the people of the Shiawassee County area.

Kind Regards,

Patrick A. Wegman, II
Chair of Shiawassee Community Foundation

NOTES

Our Roots

In 1974, five community-minded people came together to form the Shiawassee Community Foundation. They started with $5 and the goal of improving life for people in Shiawassee County. As a 501c3 charitable non-profit, the foundation has since grown to manage over 100 funds totaling more than $10 million.

The foundation currently employs three staff members who are overseen by a Board of Directors.

The SCF also supports a Youth Advisory Council (YAC) that was founded in 1995 through an endowment from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation. The YAC is comprised of community-focused students aged 12-21 from the Shiawassee area. YAC empowers youth to make an impact and become young philanthropists through volunteerism and involvement in the grant-making process.

Leaving a Legacy

FOR GOOD. FOR EVER.

When you want to support a local charity, you have options. The Shiawassee Community Foundation allows you to donate to an existing fund or open a fund that best fits your charitable interests. Each gift made, whether large or small, makes a lasting impact on our community.

There are numerous reasons people give, some have the desire to help and want to make a positive difference in the lives of others. Some want to leave a legacy.

Some want to make the world a better place for future generations. Whatever the philanthropic aspiration, the Shiawassee Community Foundation is a place where charitable giving becomes personal and meaningful. The Foundation values gifts of all shapes and sizes, whether it be of time, talent, or treasure.

HOW IT WORKS

Endowed funds last forever and grow over time because the principal is never spent. Gifts to endowments keep on giving; earnings are used to make grants that will support our community forever. You can leave a permanent legacy of giving by opening an endowed fund or by contributing to an existing fund. Your gift will make a lasting impact on our community for generations to come.

Youth Advisory Council

"At the end it's not about what you have or even what you've accomplished.
It's about who you've lifted up,
who you've made better.
It's about what you've given back."
~ Denzel Washington ~

The Shiawassee Youth Advisory Council (YAC) was founded in 1995 through an endowment from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation. The YAC is comprised of community-focused students aged 12-21 from the Shiawassee area.

YAC empowers youth to make an impact and become young philanthropists through volunteerism and involvement in the grant-making process.

WHAT DOES THE YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL (YAC) DO?

Volunteering: Many community organizations ask the YAC for help with local events ranging from litter cleanups to food giveaways to 5k races. YACers are always ready to lend a hand in their community.

GRANTMAKING

Each year, the YAC awards grants from the W.K. Kellogg Fund to community non-profits and school organizations for youth-related projects in Shiawassee County. YAC members review the applications and make funding recommendations that are then approved by the SCF Board of Directors.

To learn more about YAC, contact Amy Jo Brown at amyjo@shiacf.org or (989)720-7441.

Raise Up Shiawassee

#raiseUp
SHIAWASSEE
#GIVINGTUESDAY

Across Shiawassee County, individuals and groups are stepping up to #raiseUPshiawassee

Give Where You Live™ was the theme for 2022's #raiseUPshiawassee campaign where twenty-three local non-profit organizations work together to raise awareness and much-needed funds to serve the needs of the people in Shiawassee County.

In collaboration with the United Way, The Shiawassee Community Foundation, and The Cook Family Foundation, this effort aims to “raise UP” not only funding but also action by asking donors to give of their time, talents, treasures ($). #GivingTuesday follows the widely recognized shopping events of Black Friday, Small Business Saturday, and Cyber Monday with the purpose of linking individuals worldwide with causes they feel connected to in order to strengthen communities and encourage giving.

This is collaboration in its truest form – nonprofits coming together to raise up a community.

How do Community Foundations Work?

Donors Create Charitable Funds at the Foundation to Benefit Their Local Communities

Individuals, businesses, or organizations make tax-deductible gifts of cash or non-cash assets during or after their lifetimes.

Using the Foundation's Local Knowledge, Donors Choose the Community Issues to Tackle Through Their Funds

Such as health, the arts, education, the environment, housing, food insecurity, or college affordability.

The Foundation Invests the Funds Wisely so Donors' Contributions Can Do Good Forever

Professional investment advisors lend a hand

The Foundation Distributes Grants to Nonprofits Best Able to Address Donors' Causes and to Students Worthy of College Scholarships

If donors want to make grants themselves, such as from a donor-advised fund, they can tap into the Foundation's deep well of local knowledge for advice.

Communities Get Stronger

The community endowment created by donors' funds grows over time. The Foundation distributes grants from the endowment forever, always following donors' wishes and responding to the changing needs of local residents.
